RIGANGANAGAR, India, 4 Jan 02 (Times of India) An anti-tank mine exploded while being unloaded from a tank wounding five people, three of them students, in Sriganganagar district of Rajasthan on Monday, official sources said.

(08.01.2002)

The injured were helping Army jawans in unloading the mine when it went off at village Daulatpura, some 25 kms here, the sources said. The pulling out of the fuse of the mine led to the blast, they said. The injured were admitted to hospital where the condition of two of them was stated to be critical.

In Jaisalmer district, a landmine explosion on Monday left one person injured and 20 sheep dead near Longewal. The landmine was planted by army along the border. The explosion occurred when the sheep stepped on to the mine.

Von: Source: Times of India, 4 Jan 02, Copyright © 2001 Times Internet Limited.

<<< zurück zu: News

© 2016 Landmine.de