Grozny (Chechnya) - Suppers of federal troops operating in Chechnya have defused 13 explosive devices and inspected 639 kilometers of motor roads looking for mines over the past 24 hours, a spokesman for the press office of the Joint Military Grouping in the North Caucasus told Tass.

(17.07.2003)

The spokesman also said the military found seven caches with arms and ammunition and destroyed 12 illegal mini-oil refineries. They also confiscated 11 pieces of small arms, six hunting rifles, nine grenades, more than a thousand of ammunition for small arms, 18 artillery and mortar shells, six hand and anti-tank grenade launchers and 202 projectiles for them, two walkie-talkies and 5.2 kilos of explosives.
