Half A Million Mines In Kosovo

About 500,000 anti-personnel mines are placed throughout the Serbian province of Kosovo and have already killed several people, an official with the Helsinki Committee for Human Rights said yesterday.

(06.12.2000)
The Helsinki group has appealed to Yugoslavia to join the international treaty banning the production, use and storage of the devices, which most European countries have joined.

Von: Source: LONDON TIMES, 4 December 2000

© 2016 Landmine.de