Landmine explosion seriously wounds farmer (Azerbaijan)

Baku - According to the information from the newspaper Yeni Musavat, one person identified as Farman Orujev, born in 1938 and inhabitant of Garaveliler village of Gedabek district, was exploded in the farming field.

(13.04.2004)
The event happened on April 10, 2004. In the result of it he received heavy injury and was taken to the Shamkir district hospital.

AZCBL also points out that was already the 7th case of explosion in 2004.
6 people 2 out of them were children were killed, and 9 were wounded. The casualties took place on the territory of Agdam, Agjabedi, Agstafa, Fizuli, Gadabay, Goranboy and Khanlar regions.

Von: 13 April 2004, Azerbaijan Campaign to Ban Landmines. All rights reserved.

<<< zurück zu: News