A landmine explosion on Sunday April 4, 2004, claimed the life of one person and injured four others at Kohlue district some 410 kilometers away from Quetta, Balouchistan.

(05.04.2004)
According to reports by the police station Kohlue, the car of Naib Nazim Changez Khan ran over a landmine in kohbula area when he was on his way to loharki area of district Kohlue. The accident killed the driver, Qadir Bukhash on the spot while Naib Nazim Chagez Khan, Ghulam Mustaga, Syed Muhammad and Amir Khan were injured.

Von: 5 April 2004, The News (Pakistan). All rights reserved.

<<< zurück zu: News